STAT

This thesis sounds like it is relating to a bona fide problem in the DOD. In fact it is fictitious and is a fancy of the author. He drew a lot of experience from the Agency in this matter but is not related to this Agency or any other Agency.

The author told me that his faculty advisor and the University know it is fictitious so it will not be sent to anybody. There is no "Special Equipment Section" in any branch of Government.

Recommend your approval.
